Beth Shalom has something for everyone.

We offer Shabbat services the first Friday night of every month and the following Saturday morning, led by Rabbi Corey Helfand or Rabbi Murray Ezring from Temple Israel in Charlotte. Services are held at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Davidson. Additional Friday night services are held the third Friday of each month in the Student Union at Davidson College.

Religious school is offered for children in pre-school through grade 7, on Thursday afternoons at St. Alban's. Based on the Institute of Southern Jewish Life (ISJL) curriculum, children learn Hebrew, enjoy singing, dancing, praying, celebrating holiday and learning about Judaica.

Adult Education allows our adult Jewish congregation and guests the opportunity to gain perspective through discussion. These are often held the first Saturday night of each month as part of our weekend Shabbaton. Adult Hebrew lessons are also offered throughout the year.

Life cycle events are presided over by Rabbi Helfand or Rabbi Ezring. Members of Beth Shalom enjoy reciprocal membership at our affiliate congregations, Temple Israel in Charlotte and Congregation Emanuel in Statesville. This affiliation provides Beth Shalom members the opportunity to attend other services and participate in TI and CE events at member rates, as well as benefit from the rabbinical leadership of Rabbi Ezring.
